RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 60

Representatives Buck, Richardson, Wolkins, Austin, Becker, Budak, Dickinson, Duncan, Klinker, L. Lawson, Mays, Noe, Pond, Scholer, Summers, and Welch introduced House Concurrent Resolution 60:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Millie Cox, Vice President, Governmental Affairs Indiana Credit Union League for her years of service.

Whereas, Millie Cox joined the staff of the Indiana Credit Union League in February, 1977 as secretary in the Governmental Affairs department;

Whereas, Millie Cox was promoted to consultant three years later, and promoted again in 1982, as the legislative coordinator. It was in this position that she began lobbying on behalf of Indiana Credit Unions. In 1986 Millie was promoted to Vice President of Governmental Affairs;

Whereas, Millie Cox and her staff were responsible for lobbying the Indiana General Assembly and the U. S. Congress, analyzing regulations and legislation, serving as liaison between credit unions and regulatory agencies along with other governmental entities that effect credit unions;

Whereas, Millie Cox is well-known at the Statehouse and in Washington D.C. for her passionate convictions and her strong efforts on behalf of Indiana's credit unions;

Whereas, Millie Cox has spent her career working to ensure that credit unions provide the best financial services possible to their members;

Whereas, Millie Cox has also spent a great deal of time educating credit union leaders about the legislative process and strongly encouraging political involvement;

Whereas, In her free time, Millie is an avid student of history and enjoys reading, theater and genealogical research;

Whereas, Millie Cox states that "I believe in credit unions, I love what I do and I can't imagine working in any other industry". Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the many years of service and dedication that Millie Cox has provided for Indiana Credit Unions.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Millie Cox, Vice President, Governmental Affairs Indiana Credit Union League.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Landske, Craycraft, and Zakas.

House Concurrent Resolution 61

Representative Thomas introduced House Concurrent Resolution 61:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the men and women who have served the Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department.

Whereas, The Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department is celebrating fifty years of service to the residents of northern Putnam County;

Whereas, The Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department continues to maintain a tradition of excellence while assisting those in need;

Whereas, The current and past members of the Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department have demonstrated a high level of skill and professionalism in the areas of firefighting and emergency medical services;

Whereas, The members of the Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department have served unselfishly by risking injury and life in order to protect property and the lives of others;

Whereas, Compassion and caring for fellow man has been the hallmark and primary purpose for the continued success of the Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly honors the men and women which have served the Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Bainbridge Community Volunteer Fire Department.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator C. Lawson.

House Concurrent Resolution 62

Representatives McClain, Hinkle, Hoffman, Friend, and Cherry introduced House Concurrent Resolution 62:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor the Lewis Cass High School boys' basketball team upon winning the Class 2A state championship.

Whereas, The Lewis Cass Kings finished the basketball season with a perfect 26-0 record and won the first athletic state championship in school history;

Whereas, The Lewis Cass Kings completed a dream season defeating Forest Park 57-48 to win the IHSAA Class 2A state championship;

Whereas, Kings point guard Beau Bauer was the recipient of the Trester Award for Mental Attitude;

Whereas, Winning the state championship gives a strong three-year run for the Coach Mawbey and the Lewis Cass Kings with a record of 68-3;

Whereas, Coach Mawbey and the Lewis Cass Kings deserve recognition for their victory: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representative
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the House of Representatives and the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Lewis Cass High School Kings upon winning the Class 2A State Championship.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Coach Basil Mawbey and the members of the Lewis Cass High School Kings.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Weatherwax.

House Concurrent Resolution 63

Representatives McClain, Hinkle, Hoffman, Friend, and Cherry introduced House Concurrent Resolution 63:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor Coach Basil Mawbey "Basilball" upon his third state basketball championship.

Whereas, Under Coach Basil Mawbey, the Lewis Cass High Kings won the IHSAA Class 2A state championship;

Whereas, This will be team state championship in school history and the first Cass County state basketball champion since Logansport won in 1934;

Whereas, The victory represents Coach Mawbey's third state basketball championship;

Whereas, The Lewis Cass Kings end the season with the record of 25-0. In the last three years Coach Mawbey's team record is 59-1;

Whereas, Coach Basil Mawbey's also known as "Basilball" career record is 579-213: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the House of Representatives and the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Coach Basil Mawbey "Basilball" for his third state basketball championship.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Coach Basil Mawbey.

House Concurrent Resolution 64

Representative Yount introduced House Concurrent Resolution 64:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor Columbus Christian High School Crusaders varsity boys' basketball team as the 2002-2003 Christian Schools state tournament champions.

Whereas, The Columbus Christian High School Crusaders are the Christian Schools state tournament champions;

Whereas, Columbus Christian High School Crusaders were the tournament runners-up in the Christian Schools Athletic Conference tournament;

Whereas, In 2002 the Columbus Christian Crusaders were the Turkey Shootout Thanksgiving tournament runners-up;

Whereas, Peter Lustig and Chad Wasson were named to the (Columbus) Republic All-Area Honorable Mention team;

Whereas, Ryan Roth was named 2002-2003 State Tournament winner of the Christian Attitude Award;

Whereas, the members of the Columbus Christian High School Crusaders boys' basketball team for 2002-2003 are: Andrew Brown, Alex Grayson, Andrew Hull, Gage Jewell, Peter Lustig, Sean McIntyre, Joshua Owings, Brandon Roll, Ryan Roth, Blake Trobaugh, Chad Wasson, Ryan Wasson;

Whereas, The Mayor of Columbus, Fred Armstrong, proclaimed April 2, 2003 as Columbus Christian High School Day: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly honors Columbus Christian High School Crusaders varsity boys' basketball team as the 2002-2003 Christian Schools state tournament champions.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Principal Jan Lemmon, Dean of Students Debbie England, and Michael Dean.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Garton.

House Concurrent Resolution 65

Representative Foley introduced House Concurrent Resolution 65:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing David Errett on his retirement as head wrestling coach at Martinsville High School and his induction into the Indiana High School Wrestling Hall of Fame.

Whereas, With his recent retirement, David Errett ended his 31 year career as a wrestling coach at Martinsville High School in Martinsville, Indiana;

Whereas, For the last 20 years, David Errett has been the head wrestling coach for the Artesians; he has compiled a 198-116-1 record and has coached his teams to five conference, four sectional, two regional, and one semistate title;

Whereas, David Errett began his coaching career in 1972 when head coach John Koontz offered him the job of assistant coach;

Whereas, Until that point, David had never wrestled a day in his life but was willing to put in the extra time to learn the sport;

Whereas, David's philosophy is that coaching is teaching and, if you understand the basics of teaching, you can learn the intricacies of the sport;

Whereas, There were several factors involved in David's decision to retire;

Whereas, As one of the top-ranked wrestling officials in the United States, David is in the running to officiate at the 2004 Olympics;

Whereas, In order to be named as an Olympics official, David would be required to officiate overseas during next year's high school season, resulting in several extended periods away from the team;

Whereas, Retirement from coaching will also give David extra time to watch his daughter Lyndy, a two sport athlete at Martinsville High School, and to be on the sidelines at Mooresville High School wrestling matches, where his son, Zach, is the head wrestling coach; and

Whereas, In recognition of his many accomplishments, David Errett was inducted into the Indiana High School Wrestling Hall of Fame on February 23, 2003, a fitting tribute to an outstanding coach: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General assembly wishes to congratulate David Errett on his induction into the wrestling Hall of Fame and expresses its gratitude for the many hours he has dedicated to the instruction and guidance of the young wrestlers on the Martinsville High School wrestling team and the students in his classroom.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to David Errett, his wife Jenny, his daughter Lyndy, and his son Zach.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Bray.

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to honor the Falcons of Perry Meridian girls' basketball team and the Perry Meridian boys' basketball team.

Whereas, The Perry Meridian girls' basketball team had one of the most successful seasons with an appearance in the IHSAA Class 4A state championship game;

Whereas, This is the first appearance by the Perry Meridian girls' basketball team in the State Finals;

Whereas, The Falcons finished their regular season with a 16-4 record. They finished in a first place tie with Pike and Bloomington North for the Conference Indiana Championship;

Whereas, The Falcon girls' basketball team received many honors. Laura Gaybrick was named the IHSAA Class 4A Mental Attitude Award winner as well as being named to the Indiana All-Star Team. Christina Cunningham was named to the Indiana Junior All-Star Team;

Whereas, The Perry Meridian boys' basketball team had a very successful season as they finished with a 22-5 record;

Whereas, The Falcon boys' basketball team captured the Sectional Championship and finished runner-up in the Marion County Tournament;

Whereas, The Falcon boys' basketball team competed in the prestigious Hall of Fame Classic in New Castle, placing third in that tournament;

Whereas, Senior Austin Montgomery was named to the All Tournament Team and the Hoosier Basketball Magazine Top Forty Senior Work-Out, Senior Justin Petty was also named to the Hoosier Basketball Magazine Top Forty Senior Work-Out and Junior

Brandon Ray was named to the All Tournament Team: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the House of Representative of the Indiana General Assembly of the State of Indiana honors the Falcons of Perry Meridian girls' basketball team and the Perry Meridian boys' basketball team.

House Concurrent Resolution 68

Representatives Porter, C. Brown, Crawford, Dickinson, Harris, Mays, V. Smith, and Summers introduced House Concurrent Resolution 68:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION memorializing Sam Jones.

Whereas, Sam Jones died at the age of 74 in Houston, Texas, after battling leukemia for more than two years;

Whereas, Sam Jones worked tirelessly in his quest to make Indianapolis a better place to live for everyone;

Whereas, Sam Jones was born on March 3, 1929, in Heidelberg, Mississippi, where he witnessed segregation in its most brutal form;

Whereas, Sam Jones stated later in life that it was the segregation that existed in Heidelberg, Mississippi, that made him more acutely aware of the need to learn to live together peacefully;

Whereas, Sam Jones arrived in Indianapolis after working for the Urban League in Cleveland, Ohio, Pontiac, Michigan, and St. Paul, Minnesota;

Whereas, Sam Jones, who helped to establish the Indianapolis Urban League in 1966, was the first and only president and chief executive officer of that organization;

Whereas, When Sam Jones began working for the Indianapolis Urban League, he worked out of a motel room; last year the Urban League opened its $3 million Indiana Avenue headquarters that bears his name;

Whereas, In addition to his duties at the Urban League, Sam Jones served on a variety of commissions and championed issues ranging from suicide prevention to economic development;

Whereas, On March 16, 2003, Sam Jones was awarded the prestigious Accomplished Achievement Award by the Center for Leadership Development in recognition of his many contributions to Indianapolis and its citizens;

Whereas, In recognition of Sam Jones' years of tireless service to his community, Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson named the Celebration of Diversity Award in his honor; and

Whereas, Sam Jones was a man of peace and a soldier fighting for equality and justice for all; his death has left a void that is impossible to fill: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly extends its deep felt sympathy to the family of Sam Jones in its time of grief and expresses its gratitude for the countless hours of selfless service Sam Jones dedicated to the betterment of all of Hoosiers in his quest for equality for all.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the family of Sam Jones.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsors: Senators Howard and Breaux.

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Mater Dei High School wrestling team for winning the 2003 IHSAA Dual Meet State Championship.

Whereas, The wrestling team from Mater Dei High School is the 2003 IHSAA Dual Meet state champion;

Whereas, This victory marks the ninth consecutive state wrestling championship, an IHSAA record for consecutive titles, and the tenth overall state wrestling championship for the Mater Dei wrestlers;

Whereas, The Mater Dei team set a state record for individual state championships with 158 points;

Whereas, Mater Dei completed its season with a 23-1 record, defeating three previously undefeated teams in the state finals;

Whereas, Eight Mater Dei wrestlers placed in the state finals: Bryan Williams, Craig Macke, Aaron Scott, Matt Coughlin, Craig Weinzapfel, Dustin Nosko, Sam Wildeman, and Blake Maurer;

Whereas, This year's tournament also saw the establishment of another record: four consecutive state champions, with the victories of Craig Weinzapfel, Dustin Nosko, Sam Wildeman, and Blake Maurer;

Whereas, Mater Dei has the honor of being the only school with a father and son state champion combination—Sam Wildeman and his father, Chris; and

Whereas, Excellence in athletic endeavors deserves special recognition: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Mater Dei High School wrestling team on its 2003 IHSA Dual Meet State Championship victory, marking its ninth consecutive (IHSA record) and tenth overall state wrestling championship, and wishes them continued success.

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring the life of Mrs. Barbara J. Burton.

Whereas, Barbara J. Burton left this earthly life on May 10, 2002;

Whereas, Barbara was born on July 22, 1936 in Flat Creek, Kentucky;

Whereas, Barbara attended Campbell Business School in Cincinnati and later worked for State Mutual Insurance Company and a Cincinnati brokerage firm;

Whereas, Barbara worked for the Dan Burton Insurance Agency for thirty years, often managing the agency while her husband worked as an elected official;

Whereas, Barbara was the loving wife of Congressman Dan Burton, who loved her dearly, remarking that "She was a wonderful person ... the best ... the very best";

Whereas, Barbara was the beloved mother of daughters Kelly Smith and Danielle Sarkine and son Danny Burton;

Whereas, Barbara was the proud grandmother of two grandchildren;

Whereas, While her husband was active in public life, Barbara preferred to remain a private person, supporting her husband behind the scenes, prompting a friend to remark that Barbara was like the wife described in the Book of Proverbs, a "wife of noble character",

"clothed with strength and dignity";

Whereas, Barbara was also loved by those in the community, as she was an active volunteer for the American Heart Association, the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation and the Indianapolis Humane Society;

Whereas, Mrs. Barbara J. Burton will be fondly remembered as a good friend, compassionate volunteer, effective businesswoman, and loving wife, mother, and grandmother: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. The Indiana House of Representatives honors the life of Mrs. Barbara J. Burton.

SECTION 2. The Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Congressman Dan Burton.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 63

Representative Lytle introduced House Resolution 63:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION recognizing John E. Galvin for his contributions to historic preservation in Madison, Indiana.

Whereas, The efforts of John E. Galvin have helped foster within Indiana's children an appreciation of and pride in Indiana's heritage;

Whereas, John Galvin has served on the board of directors of Historic Madison, Inc. since 1978 and has been the organization's president since 1981;

Whereas, Under the guidance of John Galvin, Historic Madison, Inc. has become one of the leading preservation organizations in the United States—owning, operating, and maintaining 16 important historic properties in Madison, Indiana;

Whereas, His many accomplishments at Historic Madison, Inc. include his work to establish Madison's historic district ordinance; the listing of the Shrewsbury-Windle House as a National Historic Landmark; the creation of the Community Development Fund Grant Program; and the effort to designate the Madison historic district as a National Historic Landmark District; and

Whereas, Historic sites are tangible evidence of Indiana's colorful, rich heritage and provide our society with a sense of continuity: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives recognizes John E. Galvin for his many contributions to historical preservation in Madison, Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to John E. Galvin and his family.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 64

Representatives Murphy, Reske, and Austin introduced House Resolution 64:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to honor Anderson, Indiana Head Basketball Coach Ron Hecklinski for sixteen years as a head coach, who has compiled a record of 235-125 and his teams have combined for five sectional titles, one regional championship and seven conference crowns.

Whereas, Coach Ron Hecklinski was assistant coach at Ball State University prior to moving into his current position and is currently in his tenth season as the Anderson Indian's head coach;

Whereas, The McDonald's All American Game Selection Committee named Coach Hecklinski as the head coach for the East squad in the twenty-sixth annual high school boys basketball contest to be held on March 26, 2003, at Cleveland's Gund Arena and televised by ESPN;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski served as an assistant coach in the McDonald's All American Game the past four years;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski says that the thing that has excited him the most at these games in Washington, D.C. is not only being around great players, but watching them walk through the children's hospitals and interact with the young children and sick children;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski is active in conditioning and development of his player's character during practices and media events in front of multiple NBA representatives;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski who is a liver transplant survivor is never far from his purpose of being involved in something that is going to raise money for McDonald Charities;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski refused to forget his life-threatening ordeal, and with his eye opening experience still vivid, he tried to bring his newfound respect for life to the basketball court and with his philosophy;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski continuously praises his players' contributions and maturity while spending time with the children under the care of Ronald McDonald House Charities;

Whereas, Coach Hecklinski states, "Being involved in basketball is my life and I thank the good Lord for putting me in these positions": Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the House of Representatives and the Indiana General Assembly honors Coach Ron Hecklinski as a phenomenal coach and his commitment to organ donation awareness.

SECTION 2. That the Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to Coach Ron Hecklinski at the Anderson High School.

House Resolution 68

Representatives Bottorff and Stilwell introduced House Resolution 68:

A RESOLUTION urging the Indiana department of administration to tie yellow ribbons on the north and south doors of the State House and in the rotunda in honor of U.S. troops fighting in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Whereas, American military troops are currently far away from home fighting to preserve freedom in the world and to help prevent terrorism from attacking our shores again;

Whereas, These brave men and women are in our thoughts and prayers constantly;

Whereas, It is fitting that we display some object that will symbolize these thoughts and prayers;

Whereas, Wearing and displaying yellow ribbons to remember loved ones far away is a custom that has roots in popular culture and folk tradition;

Whereas, As American troops are fighting in Operation Iraqi Freedom, yellow ribbons represent hope across the nation that they will return safely;

Whereas, It is very important to soldiers who are in harm's way to know there are people at home who appreciate them; it can help boost troop morale;

Whereas, These ribbons should remain on the State House doors and in the rotunda until all the U.S. troops and prisoners of war in Iraq come home safely; and

Whereas, It is vital that our troops fighting to preserve our freedom know that we support their effort: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the House of Representatives urges the commissioner of the Indiana department of administration to display yellow ribbons on the north and south doors of the State House and in the rotunda as a symbol of our support for the American troops engaged in combat in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the commissioner of the Indiana department of administration.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 71

Representative Denbo introduced House Resolution 71:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Ora Belle King on her 100th Birthday.

Whereas, Born on the fourth day of October in 1902, Ora Belle King is the proud mother of three daughters, celebrating her centennial anniversary of life;

Whereas, Ora Belle King has had the opportunity to see many changes in her lifetime; she has lived through two World Wars, the great depression, prohibition, the flight of the first airplane, eighteen presidents, man walking on the moon, the invention of the radio, television, and the Internet and the discovery of DNA;

Whereas, Ora Belle King is active and highly regarded by her fellow community members who enjoy and benefit from her extensive wisdom and life experience;

Whereas, It is through the knowledge and wisdom of such upstanding citizens as Ora Bell King that the state of Indiana, and the United States prospers: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the House of Representatives honors Ora Belle King's long life and wishes her a Happy 100th Birthday.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this Resolution to Ora Belle King.

House Resolution 72

Representatives Stilwell and Foley introduced House Resolution 72:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring Melissa Payne, for her courage and determination in bringing an issue before the Indiana General Assembly resulting in a repeat indecent offender statute that will assist in keeping repeat indecent offenders from preying upon our communities and Hoosier citizens with the creation of Stacy's Law.

Whereas, In the light of the tragic events of July 11, 2001 in Dale, Indiana, the need to establish Indiana's repeat indecent offender statute was referred to the 2002 Criminal Law Study Committee,

Whereas, Stacy Payne, a 15-year-old honor student, cheerleader, and exceptional young lady from a rural, thought-to-be-safe environment was tragically murdered because our system of probation for repeat indecent offenders failed;

Whereas, Melissa Payne, the sister of Stacy Payne, in response to this horrible loss has garnered the strength and determination to insure the laws that failed her sister were held up for examination;

Whereas, Ms. Payne testified before the 2002 Criminal Law Study Committee, the 2003 House Courts and Criminal Code Committee and the Senate Criminal, Civil & Public Policy Committee;

Whereas, Representative Russ Stilwell and Representative Ralph Foley are the author and coauthor (respectively) of House Bill 1367 which passed the Indiana House 95-0;

Whereas, Senator Richard Bray and Senator Richard Young are the Senate sponsor and cosponsor (respectively) of House Bill 1367 which passed the Indiana Senate 48-1;

Whereas, Melissa Payne, with the support of her family, friends, and community, and with the support and testimony of Spencer County Prosecutor Jon Dartt in the above named committees, has led the challenge to change Indiana state law in memory of Stacy Payne: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives encourage the passage of House Bill 1367 to be referred to as Stacy's Law in memory of Stacy Payne.

SECTION 2. That Stacy's Law will be a reminder to all that Melissa Payne and her family has changed Indiana law so that others may not have to endure the pain of their tragedy.

SECTION 3. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this Resolution to Melissa Payne and the Spencer County Prosecutor.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 73

House Resolution 77

Representatives Cheney, Stevenson, Ayres, and Aguilera introduced House Resolution 77:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION urging the establishment of an interim study committee on job loss and United States trade policy.

Whereas, Manufacturing jobs, which build and sustain America's middle class, are disappearing; the United States has lost more than 2 million manufacturing jobs since April 1998;

Whereas, In June 2002, Indiana topped all other states in loss of manufacturing jobs;

Whereas, The creation of the WTO and trade agreements like GATT and NAFTA were passed with strong bipartisan support, amidst promises from the leadership of both parties that the benefits would far outweigh the negative effects;

Whereas, Studies based on the government's own figures have estimated 3 million actual and potential jobs have been lost since the signing of the NAFTA in 1994; in Indiana, an estimated 102,873 jobs were eliminated between 1994 and 2000, preceding the even more dramatic wave of job losses in 2001-2002;

Whereas, The annual trade deficit has hit a record high of over $450 billion, growing by more than 600 percent in the past ten years;

Whereas, The United States' trade deficit with Canada and Mexico has ballooned to nine times its size before NAFTA, and since Congress granted China Permanent Normal Trade Relations (PNTR) status in 2000, the United States' deficit with China has grown over 20 percent to more than $14 billion;

Whereas, The current administration is working on a new trade deal, Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA), which is expected to be presented to the U.S. Congress in 2005;

Whereas, Steel frame residential housing should be encouraged as an industry in Indiana;

Whereas, Steel frame strength results in safer structures, less maintenance, and slower aging of structure;

Whereas, Incentives, such as tax credits, should be considered to encourage the development of this industry in Indiana; and

Whereas, The tremendous effects of the manufacturing crisis in Indiana are obvious on the tax base and budgets, on our local, county, and state governments, schools, and public services:

Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the legislative council is urged to establish an interim study committee to study job loss and United States trade policy, including the development of a steel frame housing industry in Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the committee, if established, shall operate under the direction of the legislative council and that the committee shall issue a final report when directed to do so by the council.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to honor the Centennial Flight and birthplace of Wilbur Wright in Henry County, Indiana.

Whereas, Wilbur Wright was born on April 16, 1867, at a rural location on 750 East, Millville, Indiana;

Whereas, Wilbur Wright is the third son of Milton and Susan Koerner Wright, his younger brother Orville being born a few years later in Dayton Ohio;

Whereas, History was made in 1903 with the first ever heavier than air, manned, powered flight achieved by Orville and Wilbur Wright. A replica of the flyer is displayed at the museum;

Whereas, The original birth home was destroyed by fire in 1884. Another house was built on the site perhaps using some of the original beams from the original home. In April, 1929, the state of Indiana purchased the site and rented out the home for about twenty years;

Whereas, The first replica was torn down and the current birth home was built in 1974 by the state and later added a shelter house;

Whereas, A local group was formed to maintain the birthplace kept in its current location. The group formed under the name of Wilbur Wright Birthplace Preservation Society. On July 20, 1995, the Department of Natural Resources board voted unanimously to deed the site of the birthplace to the Preservation Society;

Whereas, The museum underwent renovation in the late 1990's and an addition completed in March, 2003 featuring an early 1900's street scene;

Whereas, Henry County will celebrate Centennial Flight Festival with their Fun is in the Air celebration on June 20-22, 2003;

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. The House of Representatives of the Indiana General Assembly honors the Centennial Flight and birthplace of Wilbur Wright in Henry County, Indiana.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Wilbur Wright Museum.

House Resolution 84

Representatives Welch and Pierce introduced House Resolution 84:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION congratulating the Bloomington High School North Science Olympiad team on its state championship title.

Whereas, Bloomington High School North, Bloomington, Indiana, finished first in the high school division of the Science Olympiad state finals held at Indiana University and will advance to the national competition for the third straight year;

Whereas, The Bloomington High School North team also won the state Science Olympiad competition in 2001 and 2002;

Whereas, The objective of the Science Olympiad is "to bring science to life, to show how science works, to emphasize the problem solving aspects of science and the understanding of science concepts";

Whereas, The Science Olympiad tournaments are demanding academic competitions comprised of a series of individual and team events that imitate the format of popular board games, television shows, and athletic games;

Whereas, The competition balances the disciplines of biology, earth science, chemistry, physics, and computers and technology;

Whereas, The Bloomington High School North team is led by six seniors—Charles Williams, Emily McKillip, Ross Dydbig, Xing Huang, Krian Parkhe, and Jen Richardson;

Whereas, The Bloomington High School North team received a perfect score in the "Mission Possible" event, which involves the construction of an electronic Rube Goldberg inspired device that completes an energy transfer in as close to 60 seconds as possible;

Whereas, The Bloomington North High School team entry in the "Mission Possible" event was built by Charles Williams, Ross Dydbig, and Xing Huang;

Whereas, The Bloomington High School South team finished fifth in the competition;

Whereas, The Bloomington High School North team has high hopes for a strong finish in the national competition to be held at Ohio State University on May 9 and 10; and

Whereas, The students at Bloomington High School North have exhibited a level of achievement and displayed a commitment to excellence that far exceeds expectations; their actions prove that American students can perform at levels that surpass expectations of even practicing scientists and engineers: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates the members of the Bloomington High School North Science Olympiad team on their third consecutive state championship title.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the members of the Bloomington High School North Science Olympiad team and the team coach, the principal of Bloomington High School North, and the superintendent of the school corporation.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 85

Representative Duncan introduced House Resolution 85:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION to honor Kathy Moore, National President of the Delta Theta Tau sorority.

Whereas, Kathy Moore has been in the Delta Theta Tau sorority for twenty-seven years since her initiation into the Delta Lambda, Greensburg Chapter;

Whereas, The Greensburg Chapter of the Delta Theta Tau sorority has been in existence seventy-five years;

Whereas, On the national level, Kathy has served on the Board of Trustees, Secretary of the Philanthropy, Vice President, and now President of the Delta Theta Tau sorority;

Whereas, On the local level, Kathy has organized funding of scholarships, grants to the YMCA, Decatur County Hospital, and wheelchairs for hospice as well as organizing efforts to help needy families in her community;

Whereas, Kathy is an integral part of the Relay for Life campaign in the Greensburg area; and

Whereas, Kathy Moore personifies the goodwill, good citizenship, and giving spirit that we admire in our country, our communities, and our families: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives honors Kathy Moore for her dedication to Delta Theta Tau sorority and her community.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the Indiana House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Kathy Moore.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 54

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 54, sponsored by Representatives T. Adams, Ruppel, and Alderman:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the state emergency management agency to provide the general assembly with a comprehensive report on current and future training needs for Indiana firefighters.

Whereas, The United States of America is continually evaluating its needs relative to homeland security;

Whereas, Training for firefighters in Indiana has been provided and regulated by the Public Safety Training Institute and the Indiana

Firefighters' Standards and Education Board; and

Whereas, It has been many years since firefighter training has been evaluated in Indiana: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the state emergency management agency provide to the general assembly a comprehensive report on current and future training for firefighters in Indiana.

SECTION 2. That this report address the feasibility of developing a brick and mortar structure to include satellite locations for firefighter training.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 70

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 70, sponsored by Representatives Bauer and Kromkowski:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION to congratulate Ryan Keckley, South Bend Saint Joseph High School senior, for winning the State High School Singles Tennis Championship.

Whereas, In the early morning semifinals, Ryan Keckley defeated the defending state champion with a match score of 6-0, 6-0, qualifying Ryan for the Championship round;

Whereas, The beginning of the first set of the Championship match proved to be a spirited battle. However, once Ryan was able to break the serve of his opponent to take a 4-3 lead, he dominated the match;

Whereas, By virtue of his discipline, skill and endurance, Ryan won the State High School Singles Tennis Championship by overcoming his opponent in a 6-3, 6-1 victory at the Five Seasons Sports Country Club;

Whereas, Ryan concluded his senior season with an undefeated record of 26-0, as well as the State High School Singles Tennis Championship Title;

Whereas, The People of Indiana are proud of the achievements of its outstanding student athletes; and

Whereas, Ryan Keckley should be congratulated on his special achievement for winning this Singles Tennis Championship and recognized for his dedication and commitment to success as has been shown by Ryan's undefeated tennis season: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the Senate
of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the House of Representatives concurring:*

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly hereby congratulates Ryan Keckley on a successful season and on winning the State High School Singles Tennis Championship.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this resolution to Principal Kathleen Ratliff, and to Ryan Keckley.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 72

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 58

Representative Turner introduced House Concurrent Resolution 58:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Tri-Central High School girls basketball team on winning the 2003 Class A girls basketball state championship.

Whereas, The Tri-Central High School Lady Trojans defeated the previous state champions, North Vermillion, and ended North Vermillion's 50-game winning streak, in Indianapolis at Conseco Fieldhouse on Saturday, March 8 to become the 2003 Class A girls basketball state champions;

Whereas, The previously ranked No. 2 Lady Trojans became the first ever state champion from Tri-Central High School;

Whereas, The Lady Trojans finished their season with an outstanding 23-4 record in front of over 2,000 of their fans at the final game;

Whereas, The team included Sarah Boyle, Megan Overton, Amanda Watson, Meranda Burnett, Kristen Miller, Stephanie Haak, Andrea Dewitt, Andrea Bowne, Anne Cage, Christina Parkison, Janel Cox, bookkeeper Tammy Miner, trainer Carrie Preston, Athletic Director Gary Rhew, Coach Kathie Layden, Assistant Coaches Dave Wise and JoAnn Cunningham, and volunteer assistant coach, Mike Wise;

Whereas, Each step during the basketball season was better than the last with an unblemished and first Hoosier Heartland Conference title, a best ever regular season record, first ever sectional regional and semi-state crowns and finally the state championship;

Whereas, The team showed incredible courage in the final game rallying from 52-46 deficit in the final 2:54 to pull out a 57-55 victory

Whereas, This championship team included four seniors, two juniors, three sophomores and three freshmen who will spend the rest of their lives reminiscing about their state title;

Whereas Kristen Miller, Meranda Burnett, Sarah Boyle were named to the Associated Press State Finals All Tourney team, the names of Overton, Watson, Allen, Haak, Parkison, Cox, Dewitt, Cage and Bowne will also forever be remembered for bringing home the championship trophy;

Whereas, Coach Kathie Layden had strong family support from two of her assistant coaches including her father, Dave Wise and her brother, Mike Wise in leading the Lady Trojans to victory: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates and honors the Tri-Central High School girls' basketball team on its 2003 Class A state championship and acknowledges the many hours of hard work and commitment required of the coaches, players, and team members to reach such a level of excellence necessary to win a state championship.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the team members, head coach Kathie Layden, assistant coaches JoAnn Cunningham, Mike Wise, and Dave Wise, athletic director Gary Rhew, and Principal Dave Driggs.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Drozda.

House Concurrent Resolution 59

Representative Turner introduced House Concurrent Resolution 59:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the Tri-Central Cheerblock for its enthusiastic and broad-based support of the basketball program.

Whereas, The Tri-Central High School Cheerblock has been in existence since the school began in 1970;

Whereas, After interest wavered in the late 70's, basketball coach Jerry Fernung asked Rick Grimme to rejuvenate the Cheerblock and the school's spirit;

Whereas, In 1979 an effort was put forth to include guys and well as girls in the Cheerblock;

Whereas, Since that first year of a membership of 100, the Cheerblock has grown to a total of 385 members today;

Whereas, This year's sponsors are Mr. Dave Gentry, Mr. Rick Grimme, and the cheer coach and advisor, Mrs. Terry Smith;

Whereas, The Pep Band and Music Department under the direction of Band Director, Jason Kahl play an important and integral part of the Cheerblock

Whereas, The Cheerblock has received support and sponsorship from other adults and former teachers, including Miss Elaine Buchanan, Mr. Brian Caldwell, and Ms. Ann Marie Bailey;

Whereas, Some 385 members make up the Tri-Central Cheerblock and each member purchases their own matching shirts and season tickets;

Whereas, The Tri-Central High School Cheerblock has become known as the "6th man" because of their importance to the team;

Whereas, The Cheerblock is an important part of Hoosier Hysteria, taking up nearly half of the gymnasium during games;

Whereas, The Tri-Central High School Cheerblock has the distinction of being the only school to twice win the coveted WTHR Channel 13 Spirit Award given by TV Sports Director Dave Collabro;

Whereas, During the pre-game shows, the Cheerblock members sing, dance, and perform cheers that support the school and the team; and

Whereas, The Cheerblock, its basketball players, the cheerleaders, the mascot, managers, stat people, trainers, and film person total four hundred thirty-three students actively involved in every home game making up 76% of the students enrolled in Tri-Central and demonstrate what Hoosier Hysteria truly is: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives of the Indiana General Assembly honors the Tri-Central High School Cheerblock and all of its members, supporters, and sponsors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the Indiana House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to its current sponsors: Dave Gentry, Rick Grimme, and Terry Smith, Athletic Director, Gary Rhew, and High School Principal, Dave Driggs.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Drozda.

House Resolution 78

Representative Denbo introduced House Resolution 78:

A RESOLUTION honoring the Paoli High School Marching Band on its 13th Marching Band State Championship.

Whereas, In October 2002, the Pride of Paoli High School Band was awarded its 13th Marching Band State Championship at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis, Indiana;

Whereas, The Paoli High School Marching Band, Paoli, Indiana, has won six championships in the last seven years and ten championships in the last 13 years;

Whereas, 2003 marks the 20th anniversary of Paoli High School's first state championship;

Whereas, Each member of the band has displayed an unwavering commitment to maintaining the attitude and dedication needed to maintain the level of excellence attained by this outstanding band;

Whereas, Most of the senior members in this year's band have earned five championships during their careers and have been excellent teachers for the younger members, leading them by example and positive critiques;

Whereas, This year's victory marks band director Bill Laughlin's 10th state championship as director of the Pride of Paoli High School Band, and Gayle Laughlin has seen 11 state championships as assistant director;

Whereas, Special thanks must go to Jerry Stroud, who has been involved with the band as a high school teacher, a band parent, a bus driver, and now as the principal of Paoli High School; and

Whereas, It is because of the band members' hard work and regular attendance at rehearsals and the dedication of the band director and sponsors that the Pride of Paoli High School Band has been so successful: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives wishes to congratulate the Pride of Paoli Marching Band on its sixth state marching band championship and to wish the band members well in their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to each band member, band director Bill Laughlin, assistant band director Gayle Laughlin, and principal Jerry Stroud.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 86

Representative Klinker introduced House Resolution 86:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION recognizing the varsity basketball team from Central Catholic Junior-Senior High School, Lafayette, Indiana, for its victory in the Class A state basketball championship.

Whereas, The Central Catholic Junior-Senior High School varsity basketball team had a remarkable season culminating in its victory in the Class A state basketball championship;

Whereas, Since the beginning of class basketball in Indiana, Central Catholic has won the Class A state championship three times, in 1998, 2000, and 2003;

Whereas, Ranked No. 1 in preseason rankings, Central Catholic finished the season with an overall record of 18-9 and a conference record of 3-2;

Whereas, This season marked the establishment of head coach Chad Dunwoody as the all-time winningest coach in Central Catholic's history with 149 wins; and

Whereas, These athletic accomplishments represent a dedication to excellence that is apparent in each member of this outstanding team: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana House of Representatives congratulates the Central Catholic Junior-Senior High School varsity basketball team on its victory in the Class A state basketball championship and wishes team members continued success in their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to team members Sebastian Greene, Paul Haan, Thomas Haan, Nick Johnson, Kristof Kendrick, Alex Loepker, Tommy Mills, Mark Ortnier, Tim Rooze, Beau Sturgeon, Ryan Svenstrup, and John Wooten, assistant coaches Tim Bullis, Shawn Martin, Geoff Salmon, and Bill Sheperd, head coach Chad Dunwoody, principal Pamela Kling Peroutky, assistant athletic director Brenda Parker, and athletic director Michelle Sanson.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

House Resolution 87

Representative Klinker introduced House Resolution 87:

A HOUSE RESOLUTION honoring the First Edition, the Lafayette Jefferson High School show choir.

Whereas, Members of the First Edition from Jefferson High School, Lafayette, Indiana, are celebrating their eighteenth season as one of the finest show choirs in the Midwest;

Whereas, This outstanding choir has been featured on "This Morning on CBS" and "ESPN" and has appeared in Miami, Orlando, Philadelphia, Nashville, Washington, D.C., Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles, and New York City, as well as on the Majesty of the Seas cruise ship;

Whereas, The First Edition has been recognized for its outstanding musical ability in the form of numerous awards and has been named grand champion at many contests, including Center Grove's Best of the Midwest, Chicagoland Showcase, Mooresville Invitational, Pekin, Watseka, East Coast Invitational, Fort Wayne, Carroll, Huntington, Opryland, Lawrence Central, Showstoppers National Invitational, and five times at the Bishop Luers Invitational; and

Whereas, Music can be described as "organized sound" that transcends time and space; the First Edition's music will truly last forever in the memories of all who have heard them: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the members of the Indiana House of Representatives acknowledge the tremendous talent and dedication of the members of this outstanding musical group and encourage them to keep providing the students and residents of Lafayette with their beautiful music.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the members of the First Edition, Peggy May, the principal of Lafayette Jefferson High School, and the superintendent of the school corporation.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 40

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 40, sponsored by Representative Grubb:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Ed Bowman on his retirement as director of the Indiana Chapter of the National Federation of Independent Business.

Whereas, Ed Bowman is an attorney who has specialized in governmental affairs and association management throughout his 40 year career;

Whereas, Ed will be ending his career when he retires this year after 18 years of service to the Indiana Chapter of the National Federation of Independent Business;

Whereas, In his capacity as director of the Indiana Chapter of the National Federation of Independent Business, Ed has been an advocate for Indiana's 18,000 small business members by lobbying the General Assembly and working with various state agencies on their behalf;

Whereas, Ed has played a major role in the enactment of legislative reforms dealing with taxation, banking and finance, tort reform, labor relations, utility regulation, criminal justice, credit issues, health care, and health insurance;

Whereas, In addition to his lobbying duties, Ed was also responsible for developing and maintaining media relations, public speaking engagements before various professional and civic organizations, and testifying before committees and meetings;

Whereas, Throughout his career, Ed has represented large and small business interests, broadcasting, manufacturing, banking, and health care organizations, and operated his own multi-association management firm;
